THREW DOGS OFF. Bailey Used Chemicals on His Shoes-Safe in Raleigh Jail.

Shoes—Safe in Raleigh Jail.

(By Associated Press.)

RALEIGH, N. C., June 23.—Acting under orders of Governor Glenn, the sheriff of Craven county brought Jos Balley (colored), the alleged murderer of John M. Lancaster, a merchant of Vanceboro, to Raleigh early to-day for safe keeping.

The killing of Lancaster aroused public indignation and posses were organized, bloodhounds were secured and the swamps were searched. By the use of a chemical concoction on the soles of his shoes, the negro threw the dogs off his trail when within two hundred yards of him, but he was captured while crossing a bridge.

Sheriff Biddle advised the governor that there was talk of lynching and he was sheriff Blodie advised the governments there was talk of lynching and he was authorized to summon the militia if necessary, but to bring the prisoner to Raleigh. This was done before any demonstration could be made by citizens.
